RE: MUR6666/
Joel for Congress

Dear Mr. Jordan:

My apologies— because, frankly, I just remembered something that I should have put in my letter to you earlier this week.

Namely, this— the fact that several times during the fall/winter of 2011 I called the Federal Elections Commission with questions about filing— and I was told repeatedly by FEC staff that I “nothing to worry about” until I raised $5000— fact.

Then— at just about Jan. 1st this year, I did reach that $5000 mark— at which point I called the FEC again— and I was told to just file for the first three months of this year— which my then-treasurer did (in April).

Please refer to the letter I sent in early July on my extensive traveling and campaigning across the Hudson Valley and Catskill region and late-October trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee conference— how I spent $5000 up until January 2012. As I have indicated repeatedly, sadly, Ms. Fredericks chose to willingly and massively underreport my expenses from late 2011— making it look as if the campaign had more money on hand than reported in Rhinebeck Savings Bank (and again, she herself told media reporters this June that her attacks on me were politically motivated: based, according to her, on my debate performance at Woodland Pond: fact).

Again— feel free to call me directly on my cell on this matter— at

Yours,

Joel Tyner
